2. The supervisor or department representative is responsible for ensuring all sections of the Volunteer Information Form are accurate and complete. Incomplete forms will be returned for further information.

3. Ensure the volunteer meets the criteria for coverage outlined below.

4. Send copy to Workers’ Compensation, Mail Code 5132, or fax to 1-805-893-8521, or email to egrozeva@ucsb.edu and retain original in department files.

5. Volunteer may also need to complete a UC Waiver of Liability, depending on nature of duties. For further information go to https://www.ehs.ucsb.edu/riskmanagement/waiver-liability or contact Risk Management at 1-805-893-5837.

Definition of “Volunteer” for Workers’ Compensation Coverage

For the purpose of workers’ compensation coverage, a volunteer is defined as a person rendering services to the University where:

1. The University has control and direct supervisory responsibility over the manner and result of the services rendered; and

2. The volunteer receives no remuneration for such services other than meals, transportation, lodging, or reimbursement for incidental expenses, if appropriate.

The following categories do NOT fall within the volunteer definition:

1. Individuals whose service is provided in pursuit of personal educational goals or to earn educational credit;

2. The individual receives remuneration for services rendered from a non-UC payroll, e.g., visitors or guests on per diem or travel allowance or academic or research visitors receiving support from home institutions;

3. The individual is sponsored by an outside agency and provides service to the University through that sponsoring agency, e.g., Red Cross volunteers or United Way volunteers;

4. The individual is an off-campus volunteer who is sponsored or referred by the University but is not under the direct supervision and control of the University, e.g., Student Internships, Student Teachers, etc.

5. Guests of the University such as: casual visitors; computer users who are employees of an organization which has a formal contractual agreement to use computer facilities; or retired employees who desire occasional access to campus/laboratory/recreational facilities.
